

TO ALL CANADA-WIDE SCIENCE FAIR PARTICIPANTS

Congratulations! Your excellent project has won a place on the Greater Vancouver Team that will attend the Canada-Wide Science Fair (CWSF) virtually, May 16th – 20th. The theme of the event will centre around Fredericton, New Brunswick as this was set to be the Host City for 2022. All events will be virtual and no travel will be involved. The website is <http://cwsf.youthscience.ca>. Take this time to celebrate your accomplishments but remember this honour not only comes with celebrations, but also with expectations and responsibilities.

It is very important that you and your parent take the time to read and to discuss the following details to make certain you understand and can meet the requirements that are expected of you.

The week will be filled with activities and there is little unstructured time. Although you will not do classroom work, your education will be incredibly enriched.

A. Expectations of you will involve:

- Your participation in all Canada-Wide activities for the full duration of the Fair with no exceptions.
- We are pursuing purchasing team attire as we would normally do. There would be a contribution by families expected.
- Thanking the sponsors for paying for your participation in the Virtual CWSF. The cost per student is $400.

Your parents/guardians have signed the Youth Science Canada form. The delegates will have reasonable expectations regarding your behaviour.

B. Responsibilities expected of you include the following:

- That you are aware of all schedules and attend events associated with the Fair.
- You are going to the CWSF as a Greater Vancouver and BC team member – therefore you will respect, support and cooperate with every member of the team.
- It is important to always be on time when attending virtual events.
- You will be responsible to get yourself up and ready each morning.
- You get enough sleep each night.

C. Participation

The Host Committee for the CWSF has been working for several years to plan events for us and have made great efforts to make these events virtual. To help ensure the success of their efforts, attendance and participation in every student event is essential.

CWSF is a great experience, adventure and fun for all. Thank you in advance for meeting the above expectations.

My child and I understand and have discussed the expectations and responsibilities described above and agree to meet all of these obligations.
